

*“Your word is a lamp to guide me
and a light for my path” (Psalm 119,105)*

Carlo Maria Martini

International Award

1st edition

2013

*In memory of cardinal Carlo Maria Martini (15/2/1927 – 31/8/2012)
and to continue in the wake of his teaching, the Archdiocese of Milan, of which he was Archbishop from 1980 to 2002,
is promoting an International award named after him*

SUBJECTS

The award, divided into two categories, will be assigned to written work and/or projects which contribute to:

- the study and knowledge of the thought and person of cardinal Carlo Maria Martini
- the development of the fruitful relationship between the Bible and culture in its various forms: art, literature, philosophy, science, economics, politics, religions, the performing arts, etc.

Archdiocese of Milan

PARTICIPATION

Italian or foreign citizens born before 31/08/1995 (or groups, max. 4 people) may compete for the awards. They must present:

- the application form
- the written text or the presentation of the project (in Italian or English, in electronic form – maximum 2GB)

AWARDS

4 cash awards to the value of € 5.000 each

DEADLINE

31 August 2013

Information, regulations and application form: www.martiniaward.it | info@martiniaward.it
Premio Carlo Maria Martini, Curia Arcivescovile, Piazza Fontana, 2 - 20122 Milan (MI), Italy